Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Descriptive Reading on Darjeeling To him, who, in the love of Nature, holds communion with her visible forms, she speaks a various language. And, If thou art worn and heart beset With sorrows, that thou wouldst forget, If thou wouldst read a lesson, that will keep Thy heart from fainting, and thy soul from sleep. Go to the woods and hills! No tears Dim the sweet look that Nature wears. Did the poet catch his inspiration, I wonder, from the grand Himalayas! For in no region of the earth are Nature's grandeur and simplicity more harmoniously blended and more strongly exemplified than in Northern India. 1. Darjeeling Railroad, Two-Foot Gauge. - What though traveling on the Narrow Gauge Railway to Darjeeling be at times monotonous, somewhat uncomfortable and largely dangerous! Our journeys end will well repay us for its annoyances. Let us make Calcutta our starting-point, and travel northward by the new railway. After running more than a hundred miles we come to the bank of the Ganges, where a steamboat in...
