Excerpt: .until a governor, of his majesty s appointment, will consent to govern the colony according to its charter/. May 13, a petition from the county of Frederick, in Virginia, addressed to the Congress, was presented and read. 3 May 15, the city and county of New York having, through the delegates of that province, applied to Congress for advice how to conduct themselves with regard to the troops expected 1 It urged the Congress to favour them with explicit advice respecting the taking up and exercising the powers of civil government, and declared their readiness to submit to such a general plan as the Congress may direct for the colonies, or make it their great study to establish such a form of government there, as shall not only promote their advantage, but the union and interest of all America. J. of C., I, 78. June 9, 1775. J. of C., I, 80. J. of C., I, 69. there, the Congress took the matter into consideration, 1 and recommended, for the present, to the inhabitants of New York, that if the troops, which are expected, should arrive, the said colony act on the defensive, so long as may be consistent with their safety and security; that the troops be permitted to remain in the barracks, so long as they behave peaceably and quietly, but that they be not sufi ered to erect fortifications, or take any steps for cutting off the communication between the town...
