Poisoned Pen Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Praise for Red, Green, or Murder Havill s characters.operate not merely as lawmen or suspects or witnesses but as members of a community where flaws and quirks are understood and accepted. -Publishers Weekly Former Posadas County Sheriff Bill Gastner, now a New Mexico Livestock Inspector, is enjoying a day on Herb Torrance s ranch-soaking in the sun, counting a small herd of cattle, and thinking about meeting an old friend back in town for lunch. But suddenly a light breeze stirs the dust, a horse spooks, and Bill finds himself ferrying a broken cowpuncher in the back of his SUV, headed out to meet an ambulance. Moments later, Bill s day goes from bad to worse. He is summoned by undersheriff Estelle Reyes-Guzman to investigate an unattended death. Too impatient to wait for Bill, his friend George Payton decided to eat lunch on his own. A couple of bites later, he collapsed-dead of an apparent heart attack. But something isn t right. Then the small herd of cattle Bill had just counted is found wandering down a county highway. But there s no sign of cowpuncher Pat Gabaldon or his boss $40,000 truck and livestock trailer. Forced into two tangled investigations, Bill faces one of the most complex cases in his 35-year career. Steven F. Havill lives with his wife of more than forty years, Kathleen, in New Mexico. He is the author of more than twenty novels set in the American west, taught secondary schools for 25 years, and recently earned an AAS degree in gunsmithing.
