Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Introduction The inspiration for Traders Village came from a flea market in San Jose, Calif. It attracted the attention of investor J. C. Pace, who began his career in the grocery business and saw the potential of a major flea market in the growing Dallas-Fort Worth area. The rest is history. One day my family were riding around in the Southern part of Grand Prairie. We were driving down Mayfield Road and came upon this site. We wondered what it was going to be, so I took a picture of my wife Trudie and my two daughters. It happen to be Traders Village under construction. We were eager to lease a Space when it open. Trudie (my first wife) and I were selling housewares door to door on weekends, mainly on Saturdays in the West Dallas Housing Project. We had accumulated over 700 customers. One weekend we were about to come home after working all day. Two Black guys were sitting in a car. One asked me if I could give him a push to get his car started. He said all he needed was a short push. Well, I pushed him and the car didn t start. This went on for about three Streets in the Project. We finally got to the corner of Bickers and Westmorland. He made the corner on Westmoreland heading North beckoning for me to push him some more. Trudie told me don t push them anymore. We got to go home and pick up my children. Mrs. Sally is worried. We got to go home now, we tried to help them. I followed Trudie decision and turn South to go home. I...
